Policy Statement

It is the policy of the Regional Municipality of Peel Police Service Board that the requirements set out in this document shall form part of the Board Policies and the Chief of Police is hereby directed to comply with these requirements in his/her administration and operation of the Peel Region Police.

1. Subject

The guiding principles under which the Chief of Police is to establish procedures and processes relating to crime, call and public disorder analysis.

2. Policy Requirements

It is the policy of the Board that with respect to crime, call and public disorder analysis the Chief of Police shall:

- a. Ensure complete compliance with legislative and constitutional requirements, and recognized legal principles;
- b. Ensure members act with full respect for human dignity and according to professional standards of skill, integrity and accountability;
- c. Maintain both officer and public safety as a priority;
- d. Provide crime, call and public disorder analysis, and that systems and procedures are established for the collection, collation, analysis and dissemination of crime, call and public disorder data;
- e. Ensure that members involved with crime, call and public disorder analysis have the knowledge, skills and abilities to perform this function;
- f. Ensure members are provided with the necessary tools and equipment to perform this function;
- g. Maintain liaison capabilities with other specialized, extra-jurisdiction enforcement agencies;
- h. Promote the use of crime analysis by supervisors to identify areas or issues requiring directed patrol, targeted enforcement, problem-oriented or community-based crime prevention initiatives;
- i. Regularly review procedures on crime, call and public disorder analysis to remain current with case law, inquests, inquiry findings, and amendments to related legislation.

3. Measurement Methods

The Chief of Police shall conduct ongoing statistical analysis, qualitative and quantitative review of all crime, call, public disorder analysis practices to:

- a. Ensure the integrity of criminal intelligence practices and procedures;

- b. Identify emerging criminal trends and new techniques.

4. Reporting

The Chief of Police shall provide an annual report on crime, calls for service and public disorder patterns, trends and forecasts based on crime, call and public disorder analysis, as well as the criteria and process used in sharing information with Regional Council, school boards, community organizations, businesses and members of the public.

The Chief of Police shall also ensure relevant crime, call and public disorder analysis information is shared with Regional Council and officials, school boards, community organizations, businesses and members of the public.

As part of a separate Annual Report on Adequacy Regulation, the Chief of Police shall report on compliance with this section of the policy.
