Policy Statement

It is the policy of the Regional Municipality of Peel Police Service Board that the requirements set out in this document shall form part of the Board Policies and the Chief of Police is hereby directed to comply with these requirements in his/her administration and operation of the Peel Regional Police.

1. Subject

The guiding principles under which the Chief of Police is to establish procedures and processes relating to property offences, including break and enter.

2. Policy Requirements

It is the policy of the Board with respect to property offences, including break and enter, that the Chief of Police shall:

- (a) Ensure complete compliance with legislative and constitutional requirements, and recognized legal principles;
- (b) Ensure that members act with full respect for human dignity and according to professional standards of skill, integrity and accountability;
- (c) Maintain both officer and public safety as a priority;
- (d) Develop and maintain procedures that require that investigations be undertaken and managed in accordance with the police service's criminal investigation management plan;
- (e) Identify the need for the implementation of crime prevention initiatives for property crime based on crime, call and public disorder analysis, criminal intelligences and community needs; both formal and informal training to educate members of this service; and
- (f) Regularly review property offence procedures to remain current with case law, inquests, inquiry findings and amendments to related legislation.

3. Measurement Methods/Systems

The Chief of Police shall conduct an ongoing statistical analysis, qualitative and quantitative review of all property offence investigations to ensure the integrity of investigative practices and procedures.

4. Reporting

As part of the Annual Statistical Report of the police service, the Chief of Police shall report on the number of property offences.

As part of a separate Annual Report on Adequacy Regulation, the Chief of Police shall report on compliance with this section of the policy.

The Chief of Police shall also report on an exception basis. This applies to those circumstances where an investigation into property offences has resulted in an "exceptional" circumstance, or a circumstance which may be considered detrimental to the police service; and/or has significant issues of potential liability to the Board and the police service.
